

DINH HONG VAN FUTURE

Speaker key

DHV Dinh Hong Van

DHV When I work on the personal development plan with my line manager I always share my wish to round out my experience within the brand building, especially to the shopper side, because now I'm working on the consumer side, I have been working seven years in marketing, I want to have enough experience in, let's say, customer development, or how do you say, key account. And we work at the biggest key account in the country.