

JANE MACKIE FUTURE

Speaker key

JM Jane Mackie

JM I certainly always want to do something that I would see as interesting and challenging. I would always want to do something that's varied so you can certainly see from the things that I've done, I haven't stayed within a particular area of the business and that would certainly be a priority. I think also working for a company that I still continue to respect. That would be important as well.